Rome, Belgrade Agree To Withdraw Troops

ROME, Saturday (Reuters). — Italy and Yugoslavia today agreed to begin the immediate withdrawal of troops from their 150-km. frontier in the Gornji area north of Trieste. Italian Foreign Minister Alesandri said that the agreement was reached "within a short time."

A week ago, President Tito suggested withdrawal of troops from the common frontier, and the Italian Government agreed to this proposal.

UN Asked to Defer Korean Question

UNITED NATIONS, Saturday. — The U.N. Political Committee agreed today until Monday without taking a decision on whether to discuss the Korean question again before the current General Assembly ends.

Withdrawal Starts

ROME, Sunday (UPI). — Italy and Yugoslavia have started withdrawing their troops from their common frontier, and the Italian Government said that the agreement was reached "within a short time."

authoritative Italian circles stated today that Italy had taken the initiative in proposing the move. This action, an Italian Foreign Ministry spokesman said, would be completed in a very short time.

In September, Italy rushed two armoured divisions, one infantry division and crack Alpine units to within a few miles of the Yugoslav frontier, claiming that the Yugoslav Government had shown signs of intending to annex part of the disputed Trieste territory.

In Trieste last night, the Allied Military Governor, Major-General Sir John Winterton, had his first talks with an Italian political representative since the riots of November 3 and 4.

Gen. Winterton discussed with Professor Redento Rotondo, Secretary of the Italian Christian Democratic Party in the territory, general problems concerning Trieste.

Benson to Join Suez Evacuation Parley

LONDON, Saturday (Reuters). — Major General Edward Benson will leave London for Cairo soon to join the Anglo-Egyptian talks on British evacuation of the Suez Canal Zone, the Foreign Office said tonight.

Mr. Robert M. Hanes, British Charge d'Affaires in Cairo, returned from leave in Cyprus today and resumed charge of the British Embassy.

Neutrality for Price

LONDON, Saturday (Reuters). — Egypt's Foreign Minister, Mr. Nasser, said today that the Egyptian Government would "pursue a policy of neutrality" in the East-West cold war.

Egyptians Fire on U.S. Food Ship for Jordan

CAIRO, Saturday. — Egyptian naval authorities said today that the American freighter "Albatross" had ignored repeated orders to stop as she sailed in the Gulf of Akaba.

The ship, which was carrying wheat to Jordan to relieve a shortage there, arrived in the port of Akaba yesterday evening.

The Egyptian Navy maintains a blockade of the Gulf of Akaba, to enforce the Arab naval blockade of the Israeli port of Haifa.

Shishakly's Movement To be Political Party

DAMASCUS, Saturday (Reuters). — President Adib Shishakly of Syria, in his capacity as leader of the Liberation Movement, has announced that the Movement will be transformed into a political party.

Shishakly established the Movement in August, 1955, and opened branches in various parts of the country. But he did not consider it as political party, as his Government had banned all parties a few months earlier. This ban was repealed just before the election on October 9.

The Movement's general programme includes the emancipation of women, state education, land reform, provision of electricity, and "progressive" taxation. It controls the new Parliament.

UN Votes to Keep Apartheid on Agenda

UNITED NATIONS, Saturday. — The 60-nation Special Political Committee of the U.N. today decided to continue for another year the study of the development of the racial situation in South Africa.

Voting was 27 in favour and 14 against, with five abstentions. The decision was taken after the Committee had rejected by 42 votes to seven a proposal to facilitate the South African draft resolution declaring the General Assembly not competent to deal with the domestic affairs of a Member State.

South African Ambassador G.P. Joste had charged that India, in supporting civil disobedience in South Africa, was "subjecting to a propaganda campaign seeking to 'desecrate' her honour."

He warned that the argument that the U.N. is the master of the situation in South Africa, which could give the Assembly the powers of a superstate, would be no more than the "old saw" of the League of Nations.

Oil Pact With Russia Signed

Israel is to send Russia $12.7m. worth of citrus and $200,000 worth of bananas, in exchange for 100,000 tons of oil, according to an agreement signed in Moscow on Thursday.

Negotiations are continuing with the Soviet Union over the balance of trade. The Soviet authorities have given the Israel Trade delegation an option on a further 100,000 tons of oil.

It is learned that the price of oil is $3.50 per barrel. The price of citrus is $1.50 per ton. No figure has been given for the cost of the heavy fuel oil to Israel, but it is believed to be around $1.50 per ton.

The President warmly welcomed Mr. Abramov and expressed his hope that the Soviet Union would "show friendly understanding of our efforts to build up this good humored and living in the scattered elements of the Jewish people who aspire to settle in Eretz Israel."

The President's own blue and white ensign and the diplomats were greeted with the Soviet national anthem, played by the military band.

Britain, Iran To Exchange Envoys 'Without Delay'

LONDON, Saturday (Reuters). — Britain and Persia are to resume diplomatic relations and will exchange Ambassadors without delay, it was announced today. A Foreign Office announcement said.

"Thereafter, they will proceed at the earliest mutually agreed moment to negotiate a settlement of the oil dispute."

The announcement added: "They are confident that a solution can be reached which will take account of the national aspirations of the Persian people regarding the natural resources of their country, and which on the basis of justice and equality, will safeguard the honour and interests of both parties."

Diplomatic relations between London and Teheran were broken off by Mohammed Mossadeq, then Prime Minister, on October 12, 1951.

The Foreign Office spokesman, commenting on the resumption said that the British Government warmly welcomed this development, which marked the end of "an unhappy interlude in the long tradition of Anglo-Persian friendship."

Resumption of relations were also announced in Teheran today. A Government spokesman announced that, with good will on both sides, better relations would be established in the past, can be established.

CLAUDE U.S. PRESSURE

TEHRAN, Saturday (Reuters). — Ayatollah Khashani, Persian religious leader, told reporters today that the American "small amount of money given to Persia as help" if the Government did not resume relations with Britain.

"If the British come," he added, "elements will start activity against the national movement."

He stated that the Americans were also threatening to cut aid to Persia unless the Government accepted British oil proposals. "We will not put up with this," Khashani called for a "day of mourning" to mark the resumption of Anglo-Persian relations.

West Recommends Big 4 Talks After French Election

New Eden Plan For Israel-Jordan Talks

HAMILTON, Saturday (UPI). — British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden has brought a detailed plan to reduce Israel-Jordan tension to the Big Four conference here. The plan envisages talks outside the framework of the United Nations, it is learned from the British delegation to the talks.

Mr. Eden's plan calls for secret negotiations between Israel, Jordan, Britain and the U.S. The Foreign Secretary is planning to hold informal conversations with Secretary of State Dulles on the subject.

Eden's close to the British delegation are of the firm opinion that Britain and France will work together with regard to Middle East affairs. These sources make it appear that Britain is interested in discussions on the inclusion of the Arab states within a Western defence framework.

Byroade, Robertson Join Conference

WASHINGTON, Saturday (Reuters). — Assistant Secretaries of State Henry Byroade and Walter Robertson have been added to the American Bermuda conference delegation at the last moment.

Mr. Byroade is in charge of Middle East policy, while Mr. Robertson is the top expert on the Far East. Neither man figured on the earlier by the White House.

US Must Take Peace Initiative—Goldmann

By JESSE ZEL LUBIE

Jerusalem Post Correspondent

NEW YORK, Saturday. — Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver will not appear at the opening meeting of the first all-Zionist Assembly here tonight. According to a spokesman, his rabbinical duties in Cleveland during Hanukkah week make it impossible.

The address of Dr. Nahum Goldmann prepared for delivery tonight will "lay the basis for united Zionist action," and in the name of three quarters of a million American Zionists, will voice support for the "legitimate demands and interests of Israel."

Castigates West

Turning to the basic issue of Israel-Arab peace, Dr. Goldmann castigated the Western Powers, particularly the U.S., for attacking the problem piecemeal and for lacking "vision and determination. This situation calls for fundamental solutions, for exploration and daring short-cuts."

Western America takes the initiative as it has in re-establishing Anglo-Iranian and Anglo-Egyptian relations, Dr. Goldmann continues, the Arabs will persist for years in a sullen, negative attitude, and "troubles will increase, bitterness will mount, and the situation will deteriorate."

The Executive of the Jewish Agency sent a cable of greeting to the all-Zionist conference which opened in New York last night.

Jordan Minister Denies Acceptance of Talks Offer

Jamal Toukan, Jordan Minister in Beirut, told the Lebanese press today that he had not accepted the offer of talks made by Premier Abdullah Yasin on Thursday that there is no truth in the reports that there has been considerable pressure on Jordan to make peace with Israel. ANA reports.

The Jordan Government will accept peace with Israel, he added.

An earlier report from Beirut had said that Jordan is prepared to accept Israel's invitation to talks.

Japanese Exports To China Soon

TOKYO, Saturday (Reuters). — Japan's exports to Communist China increased sixfold last month.

A Japan-China Trade Promotion Conference in Tokyo said that Japan exported more than $500,000 worth of goods to China in November. This was far above the previous monthly record of $100,000. Japan resumed normal trade 13 months ago.

Berlin Site Said Approved

HAMILTON, Saturday. — The Big Three Foreign Ministers agreed here today to accept Russia's proposal for a four-power conference on Germany in Berlin, usually reliable sources said.

The Foreign Ministers also agreed that the conference should be held after the French Presidential elections.

The source added that the Western Foreign Ministers had agreed that the Big Four talks should be held following the formation of a new French Government—after January 17—before the Western Assembly debates ratification of the European Army treaty. This did not exclude the possibility of the French ratification debate being held in February or March.

The reply to Russia was the only topic discussed by Mr. John Foster Dulles, Mr. Anthony Eden and Mr. Georges Bidault, a spokesman declared.

There were "no disagreements, though some points will be further discussed by the experts," the spokesman added. The experts—Sir Frank Roberts of Britain, Mr. Francois Boydoux of France and Mr. Douglas MacArthur of the U.S. met about an hour before the Foreign Ministers to draw up their recommendations.

A second draft of the Western reply to Russia was being prepared by the experts ready to be before President Eisenhower, Sir Winston Churchill and Premier Joseph Laniel. "I do not propose to give you the specific points of the Western reply," which agreements were reached, the spokesman said.

General Evaluation

In addition to discussing the reply to Russia, the Big Three will continue a general evaluation of the world situation," he concluded.

It was learned that the Foreign Minister spent some time this morning discussing the suitability of Berlin as the site of the Big Four conference, and the question of a five-power meeting with the participation of the People's Republic of China came up during the discussion on drafting a reply to the Soviet note.

Churchill Urges No Chances be Missed

HAMILTON, Saturday (Reuters). — President Eisenhower, Sir Winston Churchill and Premier Joseph Laniel began their four-day conference last night.

Their Foreign Ministers, meeting before them, already reached agreement that a four-power meeting with Russia be held early in the new year.

The decision on a conference of Foreign Ministers was taken by the Western Ministers during an one-hour meeting in the closely guarded Mid-Ocean Club.

A reliable source reported that Sir Winston had said that the Western Powers should be watchful and not allow any opportunity to pass which would permit useful exchanges with the Soviet leaders.

President Eisenhower was said to have agreed with this, but had emphasized that the West should not be over-optimistic regarding such changes. At another point, Sir Winston argued that the West should miss no opportunity to develop economic and political contacts with Russia.

According to an official spokesman after the meeting of the Western leaders, there were only "slight differences" in their evaluation of Soviet policy.

9 French Deputies To Study Polish Border

PARIS, Saturday (Reuters). — A group of nine French Deputies, including the Radical pro-war Premier, M. Edouard Deladier, today left here for Poland to study the question of the Oder-Nisse frontier line.

All parties, except the Communists, are represented in the group, which is led by M. Pierre Lacombe. Others who took off in a special Polish aircraft this morning included Popular Republican Andre Denis, Moderate Conservative Jean Louvet, and Leftist Radical Pierre Laniel, Socialist Arthur Conte, and M. Jacques Rousselle, one of the Gaullist leaders in the National Assembly.

M. Lacombe said that the journey, which will last for 10 days, had no official character. "We are not making the trip at the invitation of the Polish authorities, and we will have no official talks. We have no preconceived ideas about Poland's Western frontier, but we want to make an impartial study as possible on this problem, which has an impact on French national interests," he added.

The Deputies expect to visit Warsaw, Gdansk and Cracow.

Adenauer Favours Bermuda Decision

BONN, Sunday (Reuters). — West German Chancellor Adenauer, commenting on the Big Three decision to accept the Soviet proposal for the Big Four conference on Germany in Berlin, said today, "I regard this as a good decision."

Erich Ollenhauer, leader of the Social Democratic opposition, also welcomed the decision, saying, "I think it is a good one in view of the present international situation."

He added, "I hope that the Western powers will fully comply with the decision, and during the conference if we cannot be represented at the meeting itself by an observer."

2 More Ships Ordered From West Germany

COLOGNE, Saturday. The Israel Purchasing Mission announced here yesterday that under the Reparations Agreement, it had ordered from two Hamburg shipyards a 7,000-ton fruit transport ship and a 10,000-ton freighter with accommodations for 300 passengers.

Both ships were expected to be completed by next autumn and are to be operated by the Zim Shipping Company.

Orders for a third ship and a dry dock were placed by Israel with German shipyards last month. (Reuters, UPI)

Newspaper Strike Enters Second Week

NEW YORK, Saturday. — Federal mediators today renewed efforts to settle the New York City newspaper strike.

The strike, which began on the 10th of the month, has caused the major metropolitan newspapers, a three-man mediation committee indicated that neither the publishers nor the unions showed signs of backing down in the dispute, which has led to $200 million in lost newsprint.

Eight newspapers are shut down as a result of a walkout of some 100 photo-engravers a week ago today.

The latest victim, the "Long Island Star-Journal," was prevented from publishing today for the second straight day, when its photo-engravers refused to report for work.

Meanwhile, in Washington, CIO General Counsel Arthur J. Goldberg said that there is "a fair probability" that the "New York Herald Tribune" had violated Federal Anti-Trust Laws when it voluntarily ceased publication.

The "New York Herald Tribune," which suspended publication last Tuesday in sympathy with the publishers of the other New York newspapers, found to close through a strike, announced tonight that it would resume publication tomorrow with an abbreviated edition.

British Zionists Protest

Rumanian Trial

LONDON, Saturday (Reuters).—The Zionist Federation of Great Britain and Ireland meeting here voiced a strong protest yesterday against the recent trial of Jewish leaders in Rumania.

The meeting adopted a resolution paying tribute to the courage and dignity displayed by Mr. Jean Zisch, formerly Chairman of the World Jewish Congress in Rumania, and Mrs. Susanne Benvenisti. The two were brought to trial and sentenced to 15 and 10 years respectively after being found guilty of Zionist activity. The resolution also protested against the continued detention of over 160 Jewish leaders in Rumania without any specific charges being preferred against them.
